Why tailored training?

Programmes will be tailor-made to meet your organisational needs

Most cost effective for four to twelve members of staff

Held at your premises or venue of choice at a date to suit you

Preferential rates at all of our venues, including accommodation

Follow up review and support included

We can use proprietary products to enhance the programme such as psychometric testing

A great opportunity for focusing and strengthening the team

£1,195 + trainer travel + venue costs + VAT per day

How we Train

Our training is focussed on giving you pragmatic solutions for your everyday work situations. Our trainers balance modern business theory with practical tools to give you the confidence and ability to improve your skills.

We use a variety of techniques including group and individual exercises, practical sessions, case studies, discussion groups and sometimes role play.

Quality Control

Our commitment to quality is in everything we do. You will be asked to complete a questionnaire at the end of the training course which you can hand back to the trainer or post directly to us.

In addition you may receive a phone call to ensure that you have every opportunity to provide feedback on all aspects of the course.

In the unlikely event of you being unhappy with the content or delivery of your course, we will refund your money or offer you an alternative course.

You can find full Terms and Conditions on our website: www.kenttrainers.co.uk

Five steps to successful tailored in-house training

Initial Consultation

We will discuss your objectives and requirements. If additional design work is required, we will agree costs with you.

Programme Design

We will put together a programme that meets your organisational, cultural and individual requirements - and agree a delivery date that suits you.

Delivery

We help you to book one of our venues at preferential rates if you do not want to use your own premises. We will provide all handouts and certificates. Normal course times are 9.30am to 4.30pm but you can adjust these to meet your needs.

Evaluation

We will gather feedback from your delegates and share this with you to establish that your objectives have been met. If you have an ongoing programme, we will review outcomes with you periodically and after the programme is over.

Support and Follow-Up

We encourage managers to ensure delegates put what they have learnt into practice. We will keep in regular contact and will offer ongoing support where necessary.

Why scheduled short courses?

Most cost-effective for one to three members of staff

A chance for your staff to network with people from other organisations

Experienced trainers providing proven solutions for immediate use

Comprehensive manual, handouts and certificate on each course

One, two or three-day courses held at our venue partner, Chilston Park

Bacon rolls, buffet lunch, coffee/tea breaks

Discounts offered for registered charities

£395 + VAT per day including all materials and catering

Your luxury venue for our scheduled short courses: Chilston Park, near Maidstone

We are an Approved Development Provider with the Institute of Leadership and Management.

You are therefore able to attain recognition of your management training with us towards future accredited courses through the ILM, whilst registering for full use of the ILM facilities and libraries.

We do more than training...

Training Needs Analysis

Do you know where the Skills, Knowledge or Attitude gaps are in your organisation? We will work with you to identify where you should focus your training budget and get the best return on investment.

Ability Testing & Personality Profiling

We are licensed in a range of tools including SHL, Myers Briggs and Belbin Team Types. These tools are designed to help you understand core behaviours and can be used for staff development or recruitment purposes.

Recruitment & Assessment Centres

We design effective recruitment processes to reduce your risk of recruiting the wrong person. From short-listing to competency based interviewing through to full assessment centres, using a range of tools such as testing, role plays & presentations.

Performance Management Programmes

We work with you to put together bespoke Competency Frameworks and Performance Management Review documentation to assist your staff to focus on the key behaviours that will move the business forward.

Performance Coaching

Our expert coaches will design a programme specific to the individual's needs: whether it be short sessions of telephone conversations, or a 12 month executive face-to-face programme.

Outplacement Services

If staff are to be made redundant, we can help them identify their transferable skills, analyse their options and help them to focus positively on the way ahead.

Consultancy

Many of our trainers are also expert Consultants who can carry out a wide range of services including risk assessment, H&S audits and redundancy programmes.

Team Building

We can work with you to design and deliver a fun and focused event that will bond your team, helping them to work positively within strong group dynamics.

HR Health Check

An assessment of your organisation to see if it is managing its HR issues, following good HR practice and keeping within the law.

Management Development	Content	Who's it for?
Introduction to First Line Management 	Are you about to make your move into management or have you just made the move? You are now a member of the management team and this course will help you settle into the range of new responsibilities. You will learn about authority and how to step up to a role where you will have to motivate your team as well as handle the tough stuff.	First line managers and supervisors with little management experience who need to understand the basic skills in managing and developing their staff.
Management Programme (3 days, 1 day a week)  	This intensive three-day modular programme (1 day per week) offers you a series of fast-moving and thought provoking sessions that will give you the knowledge and skills to be a great manager. The course covers twelve fundamental management skills and gives you the opportunity to share your concerns, experiences and ideas with a group of like minded managers.	This programme is designed for middle and experienced managers looking to expand their confidence, knowledge and skills base.
Team Leadership (2 days)  	How can you get the best from your team? How can you get them all pulling in the same direction? This two (consecutive) day course will enable you to explore a range of management techniques to lead, encourage, & inspire performance from your team. You will learn how to adapt your leadership style according to the individual, task and situation so as to add value to each team process.	Team leaders, section leaders, supervisors and first line managers who are looking for some tools to help them get the best out of all the members of the team.
Senior Leadership (2 days)  	Looking at different motivators, drivers and challenges, the two days will enhance your confidence in setting the strategic direction for your team, communicating the message and having successful outcomes through clear and effective leadership. This course will enable you to identify your personal leadership strengths and how to build on these to enable you to lead and inspire your team.	Senior managers and heads of department who are looking to expand their leadership skills.
Coaching Package for those at the Top 	Are you a leader looking to work with a business coach on an individual basis? Each coaching package is different, depending on the specific agenda requirements that you set with your coach. The sessions can take place face to face, or via telephone and include a free introductory session to establish the relationship with the coach and to design your coaching package.	Business leaders, managing directors, entrepreneurs and executives looking to develop and build on their current successes.
Creative & Innovative Thinking and Problem Solving 	Creative and innovative thinking enables managers to achieve the skills and abilities to look at the strategic vision of the business, to allow them to implement these with their teams to provide the excellent levels of service. This programme explores exactly what creativity and innovation, is how to nurture it and encourage it and to ensure that it produces deliverable effective solutions.	Middle and experienced managers needing to develop their critical thinking and decision making abilities.
Directors' Development Programme (3 days) 	This three day programme combines the key elements for those who are wanting to develop further into strategic business leaders. It will give delegates a focused understanding of the finances, commercial impact, and how to work as an active member of the Board.	Directors looking to improve or just rethink the way they lead their businesses and perform their duties

Management Development	Content	Who's it for?
Managing Change 	Businesses have to deal with changing circumstances on a regular basis - sometimes as a result of a large corporate restructure, or more commonly, in response to changes within staffing levels, departmental changes or in response to events in the business climate generally. This one day bespoke course is designed specifically around the challenges and issues facing your organisation.	Anyone who has responsibility for managing change and negotiating a successful acceptance of the situation.
Equality & Diversity 	We live and work with a wide variety of people and communities - different races, religions, ages, genders - to name but a few. How does this diversity impact on you and your customers? This workshop will help your team to recognise how essential it is for your business to recognise this in your work colleagues and customers and how to work with them positively - and within the law.	Everybody!
Managing Poor Performance and Difficult Behaviour 	As a manager, you will have had to cope with a staff member who is not performing to an acceptable standard. This one day course will give you the tools and techniques to deal with poor performers and you will learn how to motivate and re-inspire individuals. It gives practical guidance on how to approach this difficult area of management, and to keep within the law.	Managers and HR professionals who want techniques on how to recognise and deal with poor performance and difficult behaviours.
Performance Management and Appraisal 	Performance Management is about getting the best out of people and helping them achieve their potential. The appraisal interview is a part of that process. This one day course looks at the principles of reviewing staff performance and conducting appraisals. It will help you to use the assessment to motivate and encourage individual performance.	Managers with the responsibility for undertaking Performance Management reviews with staff.
Coaching & Mentoring 	This one-day course on Coaching and Mentoring is for people wishing to develop their coaching or mentoring skills at any level within an organisation. It aims to give participants a clear insight and understanding into the dynamics that happen between either individuals or groups of people when they work together.	Managers who want to get the best out of their staff through an individual approach to their management.
Emotional Intelligence and Personal Resilience 	Emotional Intelligence is a highly valued skill in any environment. Energy, enthusiasm, collaborative relationships, effective communication and compassion are all needed to make any organisation great. People with high EI are better equipped to manage their own thinking and decision making, communicate effectively with others, manage change and handle stress positively.	Those looking to gain a better insight into their managerial style and develop their leadership skills and behavioural approaches.

Management Development	Content	Who's it for?
Recruitment and Interviewing (2 days) 	This highly practical 2 day course will look in depth at the importance of preparing both the person specification and the job description to ensure that you reduce the risk of recruiting unsuitable applicants.	Ideal for managers who are new to recruitment, or experienced managers and HR personnel who would like to receive some up-to-date refresher training.
Tough Conversations 	As a manager or HR professional, you sometimes have to have those tough conversations. This might mean tackling a sensitive topic or dealing with conflict. You need to plan the conversation and be prepared to handle it, however it plays out. This course will help you to feel confident as you approach it, and to respond flexibly to whatever happens.	Any manager, supervisor or HR professional who is concerned about having a difficult conversation in the workplace.
Negotiating, Influencing & Persuading 	In this practical programme, you will learn how to make a strong personal impact; the value of great listening and rapport; and how to tailor your message to the person you want to persuade. You will learn to plan, deliver and follow through on critical negotiations. You will be able to break stalemates and defuse conflict resulting in the best possible agreement - one that lasts.	Anyone who would like to be more influential and more persuasive in their day to day interactions with colleagues or clients.
Managing a Project Team 	Understanding how projects work and how to use the appropriate tools and techniques is just half of the picture in delivering successful projects. This course focuses on the human dimension of Project Management, looking at how to maximise the team and focus its efforts on the project in hand.	Managers who are responsible for leading and influencing their project teams.
Project Management (2 days) 	A practical master class for managers needing to develop Project management skills. This course takes delegates through a project from its conception to its ultimate conclusion applying the learning as we go. At the end of the course the delegates will have a clear understanding of project management and the methods used for managing resources.	Anyone who wants to develop the knowledge, skills and confidence to proactively and successfully lead large or small projects.
Internal Auditing for Quality & Environmental Mgmt. Systems 	At the end of this one-day course you will be able to understand the importance of internal auditing, their specific responsibilities and how to report the results of the internal audit to both the management of the business and the external assessor.	Managers and staff with responsibility for undertaking ISO9001 or ISO14001 internal auditing.

Personal Development	Content	Who's it for?
Communicate Assertively and with Confidence 	Communicating assertively and with confidence is vital to get your message across. We can be the best in our role, but if we cannot communicate our wishes to others, our skills will be undermined. Kent Trainers are an approved Development Provider of the Institute of Leadership and Management (ILM). Our Team Leader and Management Programmes are recognised by the ILM. Delegates are automatically registered with the ILM and will receive a certificate of achievement which can be used towards further qualification programmes. In addition, they have free studying membership of the ILM which will entitle them to access a range of additional learning resources to enhance their knowledge. Our bespoke In-House training can also take advantage of these benefits.

“The courses are always informal and are delivered by true professionals who are extremely helpful and inspirational.

Chilston Park Hotel is superb.”

“Really useful - did what it said on the tin!

Best event I have attended in years.”

“Thank you for a very interesting and enlightening day. The delegates said they found it very useful.

I feel that this year they are going to tackle the appraisal process with vigour and a positive attitude.”

“The course was very informative, hands on and enjoyable. I wanted to come up with strategies for managing conflict and this happened.”

Sales, Marketing & Customer Care	Content	Who's it for?
New to Sales 	Selling is not just about product knowledge but engaging your buyer before you try to sell to them. If you are new to the sales role, this course will help you with tried and tested techniques for increasing your sales conversions. It covers the role of the salesperson; researching the client and setting objectives; presenting benefits; closing positively; and overcoming objections.	Anyone new to sales or those with experience but no formal training in the art of selling.
Selling by Phone 	Do you promote your goods and services to your customers by phone? This workshop is designed for both inbound and outbound calls and will enable you to establish your customers' needs, meet these and thus increase sales. You'll discover the tips for getting past the "gate-keeper", handling the "No" responses and identifying opportunities to cross sell goods and services.	Any member of the team who uses the phone to regularly contact clients to sell goods or services.
Sales Negotiations 	Negotiations are about getting a balance of the win-win scenario so that everyone involved feels that they have got the result they want. This course will give you a range of negotiation skills in order to achieve a successful outcome from discussions with clients. You will work on an action plan to take back to the workplace for immediate use when dealing with client negotiations.	Sales people who would like to extend their expertise in negotiations with clients either face to face or by telephone.
Face to face selling - the client meeting 	This in house course is designed for sales staff to look at building the client relationship. It focuses on researching the client, preparing for the meeting, building the rapport between you and your customers, developing listening skills, dealing with difficult customers and making the sale. An interactive course that works on communication and confidence and how to get the most out of client meetings.	Anyone who undertakes face to face sales meetings with clients.
Sales Team Management 	Many excellent sales people are given the task of managing the team because of their sales skills. However this management role is very different from the skills needed to sell to clients and customers. If you are responsible for managing your sales team and want to help them improve their efficiency and meet their targets, then this course is designed with you in mind.	Managers who want to energise and motivate their sales team to achieve and improve their performance and thus exceed their targets.
Strategic Commercial Awareness 	This bespoke in house course will give your organisation the opportunity to consider the future, build and implement a cogent strategy so that you can adapt, survive and thrive. You'll come away as a group being able to work "on" your business rather than just "in" it with a developed strategic business plan for the way forward.	Senior managers, key players in the business, shareholders, proprietors.
Key Account Management and Development 	On this course you will learn how to apply a structured approach to developing key accounts: looking at those accounts worth developing and when to walk away. You'll explore how to build on the relationships to provide your clients with the service level they require. This in turn will be rewarded with long term business for your organisation.	Experienced sales people who are building and developing business from existing clients.

Sales, Marketing & Customer Care	Content	Who's it for?
Marketing today: Online and offline secrets of success 	You may be writing your own website and marketing materials, but you might not know what tips, tricks, and techniques you're missing. In this fun and interactive session, you'll learn the secrets of writing words that change behaviour so your readers take the action you want them to take - whether that is to buy something, subscribe to something, or something else.	Anyone responsible for marketing an organisation, product, or service and looking for confidence in getting the message across in the most cost-effective way.
Making Social Media Work for You 	Twitter, LinkedIn, Facebook, Blogging... the list is endless and whilst many of us are able to set up accounts and dance around on the fringes of the social media scene, this in-house course will provide you with all the help you need to focus on making the various media formats work for your particular business. Please have online accounts already set up and bring your own laptop.	Anyone who wants to use social media to raise their online profile and boost sales.
Event Management - Organising and Planning Events 	This one day event management workshop will give you the confidence to undertake whatever event you are responsible for organising. It will give you the essential tools to plan any event, to work effectively with project members and to ensure that the event comes in on budget - and is a great success!	This organising an event course is for anybody who is required to have a lead role in event management.
Become a Customer Service Star - 2 days 	In a fiercely competitive market, it is vital to put customers first and go the extra mile so that you become the provider of choice. This programme will provide delegates with key skills to interact with customers through a variety of different communication channels such as face to face, on the telephone and through social media.	All staff - at every level!
Service Users - handling difficult service users successfully 	This course focuses on how to handle complaints and criticisms of your service including when to say 'sorry'. You'll explore how to handle angry and verbally aggressive clients; when to accept that you can do no more; and ensuring you don't take it personally. It also deals with how to ensure that any important information isn't overlooked when dealing with a serial complainer.	People who regularly come in to contact with people who use their services.
Reception Skills - the face of your organisation 	The first point of contact a customer has in any business is usually this member of staff who creates the first impressions of your company and this may affect any future relationships. This course will provide practical solutions on the day to day aspects of the job, giving you the confidence to represent the business to all clients, visitors and staff.	People responsible for meeting customers and visitors to your organisation, either face-to-face or by telephone.
Partnership working - develop successful shared service partnerships 	This one day course is designed to enable all those involved in partnership working at Local Government level to clarify the aims and objectives of the individual groups and how to play to each others' strengths in ensuring the "whole is more effective than the sum of its parts".	Anybody who is required to have a lead role in event management.
